

Registered Dental Hygienist Full Time/Flex Hours position available at a rapidly growing and highly successful practice in Cayce, South Carolina. Soon opening multiple clinics across South Carolina and the neighboring states.

Ideal candidate would be a thorough professional with genuine interest in helping patients achieve their periodontal health and is a team player and a leader with an action-oriented approach. The candidate should be focused on personal and professional growth leading to a fulfilling career.

Must have South Carolina license and be comfortable working with both kids and adult patients. Should be focused on a winning attitude and approach during the busy hours in the clinic and take X-rays as necessary.

Job Type: Full-time

Benefits:

$30.00 to $36.00 /hour based on skill level and years of experience

Company-paid time off

Continuing Education Reimbursement

Performance based bonus plan

Job Description

Registered Dental Hygienist (RDH) Schedule full time 32+ hours per week. The Dental Hygienist (RDH) is primarily responsible for performing high-quality and efficient hygiene procedures and building and maintaining positive and professional relationships with patients. Educating and counseling patients on dental health, plaque control, oral hygiene and nutrition. From the first exam to the final polish, taking patients under your wing and providing the Perfect Patient Experience, all while helping to maximize office production.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Provide spectacular patient care and service with a friendly chair side manner
- Create an exceptional experience for patient
- Practice the standard of care of the State Board of Dentistry
- Stay on schedule as much as possible to create no patient wait time; help manage patient flow; maintain time flexibility for patient
- Educate patient on oral hygiene/health/disease as well as procedures and services; establish/communicate continued care
- Comply with state and federal laws for chart documentation; follow OSHA guidelines
- Verify patient health history (review basic health status, medications; understand impact with dentistry) and document appropriately in patients chart
- Thoroughly and efficiently perform clinical hygiene functions including but not limited to exposing/processing/evaluating diagnostic X-rays, reviewing medical histories and recording blood pressure, adult/child prophylaxis and non-surgical periodontal therapy

Qualifications and Requirements:

- High school diploma or equivalent

- Dental Hygiene certification/degree from accredited dental hygiene school
- Current hygiene license issued by state of South Carolina
- Maintain annual OSHA, HIPAA and Infection Control training as required by law
- Outstanding positive attitude and demeanor
- Professionalism in all aspects of job
- Ability to work well in a fast-paced environment
- Strong multi-tasking and organizational skills
- Team work skills; Strong ability to work well with other

About Cayce, SC

Cayce is a city in Lexington and Richland counties along the Congaree River and is Located on the western outskirts of Columbia Metropolitan Statistical Area. Located in Columbia South Carolina one of the fastest growing cities. Affordable house prices, Great warm weather, year round sunshine, low cost of living . 1 hour from mountains and beaches and 3 hours from Atlanta. Columbia has everything great to offer without the stress and cost of big cities. Today's Dental is in the heart of Cayce, South Carolina in a well-established practice full of promise, positive demographics, energy and growth opportunity.